

LICENSED USAGE AGREEMENT USE OF FOR HISTORIC PHOTOS

Between
Greenfield Historic Landmarks (Owner)
and
Red Banana (Licensee)

January 22, 2016

Per this agreement, Owner will supply high resolution digital images to Licensee for use on “items for sale.” This agreement will be in the amount of $100/image paid to Owner. Licensee agrees to use photos in their historic state without altering the editorial content of the image. “Items for sale” can be any item offered for sale in the Licensee’s business excluding paper prints. Owner reserves exclusive rights to sell prints of these images and Owner maintains ownership of the original photos. Licenses may be issued for other retail vendors with permission from original Licensee. If Licensee ceases to do business, Owner may offer license agreement to other retailer without permission of original Licensee.

Credit to Owner will be provided on paper sale tags of items containing images.

“Historic image (photographer’s name may be stated) used by license agreement with Greenfield Historic Landmarks.”

Permission text is to prevent other entities from attempting to use imagery without permission or license agreement. This text protects both Owner and Licensee.

Signed

Owner Representative Date

Licensee Representative Date